1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

For claims 1-10, the prior art fails to teach a combination of the steps of:
receiving an information stream containing content;
creating a first burst containing a first portion of the content; creating a second burst containing a second portion of the content; and encoding in the first burst a first relative time period between a transmission of the first burst and a transmission of the second burst.

For claims 11-29, the prior art fails to teach a combination of :
receiving a first burst of content; extracting from the first burst a first relative time period until a transmission of a second burst of content; and removing power from at least a portion of the mobile terminal for a time period less than the first relative time period.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Bilstrom et al. (5,910,949), Li (5,537,410), Natarajan et al. (5,241,542), and Agee et al. (6,359,923) are all cited to show systems which are considered pertinent to the claimed invention.
